THE UNIVERSITY HATCHET

GW's weekly newspaper, The University HATCHET, is the major source of campus news for the University community.

Expanded this year to a twenty page tabloid format, the Hatchet attempts not only to cover all of the news of interest to its readers, but also to provide a forum for the analysis and continuing discussion of meaningful, if often controversial, topics.

Clockwise: Sandra Schline; Charles Ory, Headline Editor; Gary Passmore; Muff Moisuk; Berl Brechner, Cultural Affairs Editor.

PAUL LIEBMAN, Business Manager

MARSHA SPRINTZ, Features Editor

As part of its enlarged coverage, the Hatchet now includes such features as broader reporting of University sports events, a "bulletin board" of all campus activities, a cultural section which spotlights activities of the D.C. area, and an increased reporting of the actions and trends on other college campuses around the nation.

In cooperation with President Elliott and several faculty members, ODK developed an honors program around Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy's gift of a recorded lecture series entitled "French Civilization as Reflected in the Arts." Alpha Delta Circle placed a plaque behind Monroe Hall to augment its earlier gift of cherry trees to the University, and to cite several alumni members for their contributions to the campus. Parents' Weekend became the third project in University service, as the Student Council designated the annual event to be the joint responsibility of ODK and Mortar Board.

University officials tapped at Homecoming included President Elliott and Charles Reed.

The Gate and Key Honor Society chooses its members from the ranks of outstanding fraternity men at George Washington University. To be eligible for membership, one must have held a major office in his fraternity, have actively participated in school activities, have maintained a high degree of academic excellence, and be selected by a vote of the membership of Gate and Key.

In addition to meetings and the spring prom, "The Hi-Ball," Gate and Key is the sponsoring organization for the campus "Ugly Man" contest. That contest is designed to raise funds for charitable causes. Last year Gate and Key donated nearly $300 to the United Givers Fund. This year Gate and Key became the sponsoring organization for the Fund for the Library, a philanthropic endeavor to raise money for the University library. For this purpose $814 was raised with $500 worth of new books already allocated from this fund.

Dear Miss Ewart:

As judge of the five finalists in the 1966 contest, I have selected Miss Jane Guthrie to be Cherry Tree Queen of The George Washington University.

This was an extremely difficult decision and was made after studying various pictures, including the formal photographs received yesterday; and after having the opportunity of meeting the girls in person at a luncheon, which all five attended.

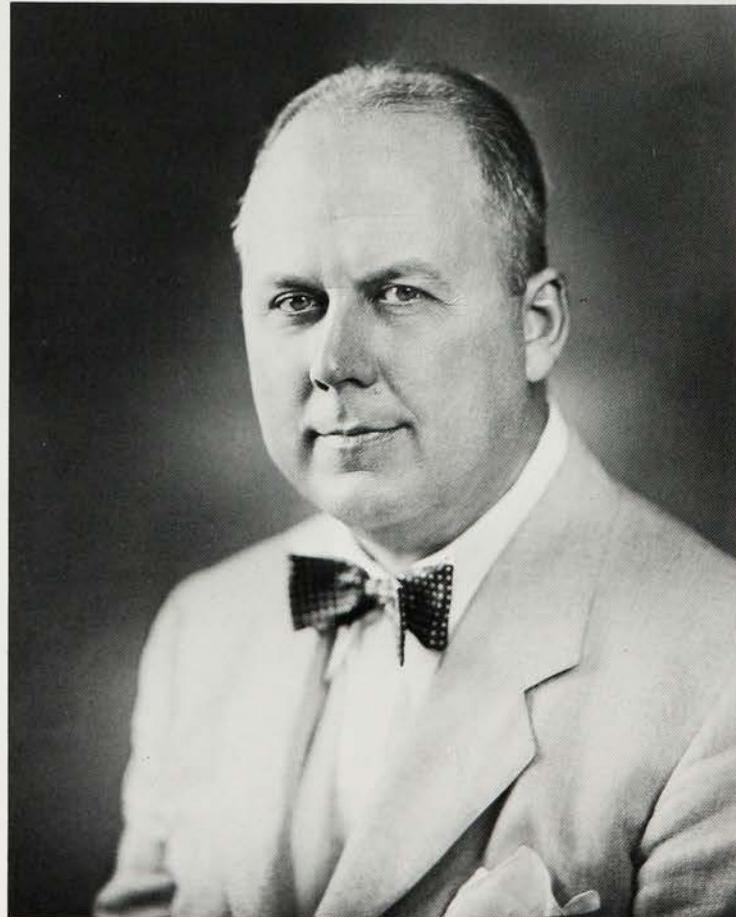

I want to compliment those responsible for the selection of the finalists, any one of whom I feel could have reigned as Queen with credit to the University. All are most attractive young ladies.

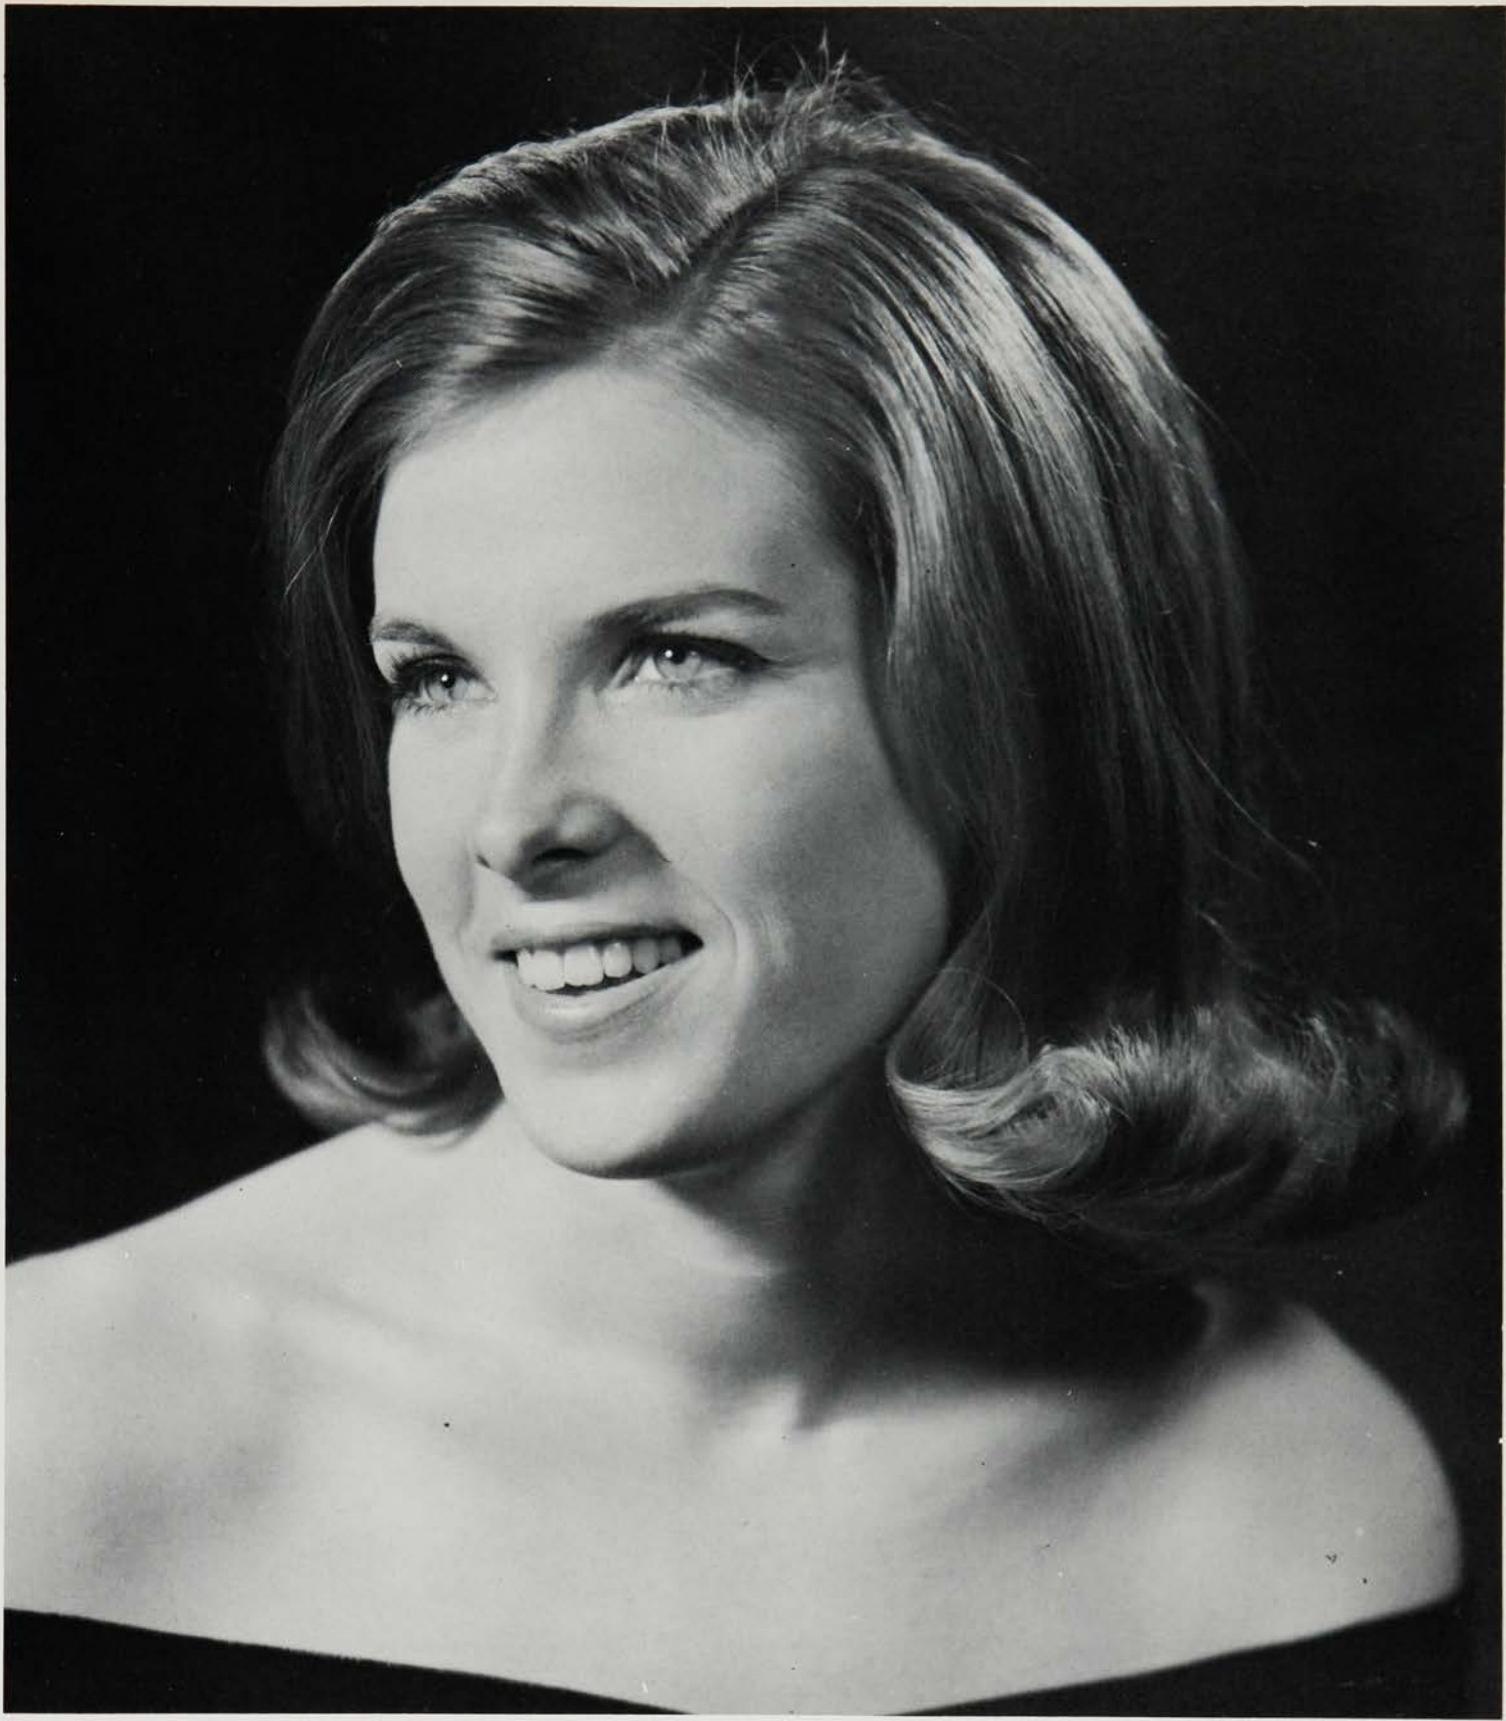

Sincerely,

KAPPA DEUTERON CHAPTER OF

The Alpha Epsilon Pi brotherhood has continued in the heritage of success and fraternalism set by our past members. This year has been one of unusual accomplishment in all fields of fraternal, scholastic, and University life. This we owe to our brothers who have enriched themselves and the University through their participation in AEPi. The fraternity house has become our home away from home, and even the outside colors appear less like a banana. Through the past year the interior of our house has been entirely redone. By completing our kitchen, we have become the only house on campus to provide fully equipped and staffed dining services. AEPi was once again very active on the GW campus. This year three brothers are in Who's Who, and one brother is studying in England on a Woodrow Wilson fellowship. Last year's outstanding sophomore man was an AEPi as well as having five brothers on the Student Council, and one on the Student Life Committee. In intramurals, AEPi is constantly a threat for top honors. And once again, AEPi's pledge class of fifty-four boys is the largest and the best. Socially, this year has brought AEPi to the head of the campus. The fraternity initiated an inter-fraternity and sorority party held in our house. The regular fraternity-image party has been changed into something more interesting and varied. We have had evenings with various professors giving talks of interest to people of our age group. Also, we have been entertained by live performers from all areas of music. Alpha Epsilon Pi is not merely a social organization in concept or practice. We have brought in money for numerous Washington and national charities, including the Red Cross. On campus we have started a drive to increase interfraternity communication. Of all our activities, we are most proud of this part of fraternity life.

THE GAMMA ETA CHAPTER OF

Run for Daylight.

The Deltas started the year with an extensive rush that was culminated by a fine pledge class. Continuing its dominance of intramural football, the Deltas began their quest for retaining the all-University intramural trophy. Climaxing a very active social year was the Spring Formal, Rainbow.

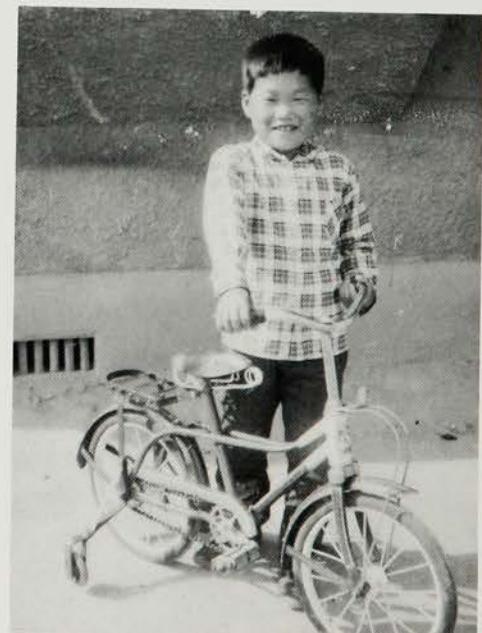

For Delta Tau Delta, 1965-66 was a great year scholastically, socially, and athletically. With the present nucleus, the Deltas expect another great year in 1966-67, again being one of the best fraternities on campus.

THE ALPHA ETA CHAPTER OF

Kappa Sigma, the "friendly ghosts" of last year, has accentuated growth this year. More than doubling its membership again, the Kappa Sigs boast of the fastest growing fraternity on campus. With more parties, more intramural activities, more student leaders, including President of the Inter-fraternity Council Bruce Innes, and Member-at-Large of the Student Council Brian O'Dwyer, with more members in Order of Scarlet and ODK, and with still more stress on the individual being helped and in turn helping the fraternity, Kappa Sigma is proud of its achievements, and is looking forward to the future.

What a hangover.

PHI ALPHA CHAPTER OF

The past year has again been a fruitful one for Phi Sigma Delta. After celebrating its golden anniversary at George Washington, the Phi Sigs began their second half-century with continued growth and achievement. For the fifth straight semester the fraternity captured the highest QPI, and the pledges attained the highest pledge class QPI for the third time in the last four years. The IFC Blood Drive trophy, with one already retired by Phi Sigma Delta, was won again, this time with a record breaking ninety-eight per cent participation level. Meanwhile, Phi Sigs were making names for themselves in all aspects of campus life. Joel Shulman was named Outstanding Fraternity Man, and this past president of the IFC graduated as valedictorian of his class. Allen Snyder assumed his post as Editor-in-Chief of the Hatchet, Bill Herman as Editor of the IFC Times, and Steve Garfinkel as Associate Editor and Fraternity Editor of the Cherry Tree. Lou Colaguori and Murray Levy served as members of the Student Council, with Bob Rosenberg and Barry Rathner working as committee chairmen. Phi Sigs were found in almost every honorary, including Phi Beta Kappa, Omicron Delta Kappa, Order of Scarlet, Phi Eta Sigma, Alpha Theta Nu, Pi Delta Epsilon, and Gate and Key. In intramurals Phi Sig won the B-league softball championship. Taking in a class of 31 new pledges, the chapter continues to look for a bright future.

THE LAMBDA CHAPTER OF

This was a rewarding year for the Phi Sigs. Our completely refurnished house permitted us to host some eight hundred rushmen, from which we selected one of our most promising pledge classes. One of the pledges, John Lollo, was a member of the outstanding freshman football team, thereby following in the footsteps of Brother Kwiecinski of this year's successful varsity. We gained further success when our "A" team won its first gridiron victory in four years, and when our "B" team defeated our long time rival, the Deltas, in the best game of the season. During Homecoming we won second place in the Float Contest, and our Moonlight Girl, Marion Johnson, was crowned as a member of the Homecoming Queen's Court. Special note must be taken of Brother Hansen, who not only starred in GW's production of "Winnie the Pooh," but also managed to halt a University game at W-L stadium with a barrage of helium-filled balloons. Lambda also enjoyed its share of academic success this year. Four brothers graduated, with five others doing their graduate work at GW. Brother Diehl achieved the highest grade average given in the undergraduate Engineering School. Brother Harris was one of the six candidates selected from the sophomore class for the International Honors Program. Three brothers were initiated into Gate and Key, of which Brother May is President of the Court of Honor. The usual annual events included the Miss Model Pledge Contest, Christmas Formal, the Batman Party, Carnation Ball, and the Founder's Day Banquet. In August, 1966, we will host the Phi Sigma Kappa National Convention.

THE WASHINGTON CITY RHO CHAPTER OF

The past year was filled with excitement and sorrow for the brothers of SAE. In February, 1965, a fire occurred in the chapter house causing $5000 damage. Fortunately, the damage was limited to only some furnishings. The fraternity was deeply grieved by the untimely death of Brother Craig Logan, who died over the Thanksgiving Holiday. His death left an empty spot in all the brother's hearts.

There was much good for the SAE's this year. Brothers Ron Ullrich and Bob Wallace served on the Student Council as Treasurer and Advocate respectively. Brother Pete Pazzaglini was initiated into Phi Beta Kappa; Brothers Vic Clark and Pazzaglini were named to Who's Who; six brothers are members of the Order of Scarlet, and seven are in Gate and Key. Brother Mike Holloran was selected Outstanding Football Player of the area, and brothers Glass, Welpott, Shue, and Barton played varsity football. Brothers Shuemaker and McElroy played varsity baseball, brothers Rainey and Elliott varsity basketball, and brothers Farina, Adair, and Anderson rowed crew. SAE placed second in intramural competition, winning first place in wrestling and swimming, with Brother MacDougall chosen outstanding wrestler. Our social season was ably led by Greek King Bob MacLeod. SAE captured the intramural speech contest for the third straight year. Finally, we are very proud of our 32 man pledge class.

THE EPSILON CHAPTER OF

Epsilon Chapter of Sigma Chi began its one-hundred second year by continuing a first-place tradition. The brothers and pledges took first place in the Homecoming Float Contest, the intramural swimming meet, the Holiday Season competition, and the IFC Sing of 1965. Sigma Chi had three members on Student Council, and four in Who's Who. Brothers are also active in ODK, Order of Scarlet, Pi Delta Epsilon, Theta Tau, Delta Phi Epsilon, Alpha Kappa Psi, and Gate and Key. Individual brothers, in addition, have distinguished themselves as Student Council President, IFC Vice-president, Alpha Kappa Psi President, and Colonial Cruise Chairman. Derby Day, 1966, promises to be a great success, and despite a mid-afternoon rain, last year's Derby Day was well received.

Perhaps our most notable achievement was the Blood Drive for G. I.'s in Vietnam, sponsored by the Fall pledge class. A total of 213 pints of blood were donated and support was received from Supreme Court Justice Clark, Dean Bissell, and President Elliott. Publicity in the form of radio and T.V. coverage, and the conscientious effort of each pledge helped to make this project the most successful of its kind attempted at the University.

The Fall Semester's social season was climaxed by the annual Sweetheart Dance, attended by brothers, pledges, and alumni. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the 1965-1966 Sweetheart of Sigma Chi, Miss Carolyn Waldie, of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority.

Van Sternbergh and William Speidel were initiated into the Gate & Key Honor Society. Sigma Nu placed second in intramural football, and made a strong showing in athletics in general. # THE TAU THETA CHAPTER OF

With the largest pledge class in years, the brothers of Tau Epsilon Phi foresaw great things this year. Socially, we started off with a real bang—our Surf party. Brother Rick Slatnick lent his artistry and Brother Joe Chomski his imagination as TEP decorated its basement as a beach—including over a ton of sand. In football, the A-league team started off well by beating Med School and Engineering (without even allowing a first down), but suffered defeat at the hands of the Deltas, SAE, and AEPi to come in with a 2-3 record. However, we are looking forward to greater things in basketball and softball, and hope to improve last year's 3rd place showing in the all-intramural standings.

Tau Kappa Epsilon had a great social season this year, with our Chapter Sweetheart Christy Murphy aiding us a great deal with planning and decorating. At the Founders Day Ball entertainment was provided by the "Missing Links." The "Western" and "China" parties were also great hits. We had an undefeated football season and placed third in softball. Frater Meinecke was active in student government, and Frater Rogers was initiated into the Order of Scarlet. Tekes came in second scholastically and in the Blood Drive. High point of the year was the installation at Catholic University of another chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon, the nation's largest social fraternity.

GW PACED

Quarterback Garry Lyle bangs out first down yardage.

GW vs. Temple. GW opened the 1965 season by defeating the Temple Owls, 21-13. Led by speedy wingback Mike Holloran, who scored the Colonials' three touchdowns, and Quarterback Garry Lyle's sparkling runs, the Buff thwarted the Owls' bid for an upset.

GW vs. Citadel. A high scoring offense and alert defensive play highlighted the Colonials' first Southern Conference game. GW opened the scoring as Lyle, in his new role as place-kicker, booted a 33-yard field goal. Wingback Holloran continued to rip apart opposition's defensive lines for long gains and climaxed a Buff drive with a one yard sneak. After Citadel scored on a 70-yard drive, Lyle dove over from the one yard line to make the score GW

BY RUSHING ATTACK

17, Citadel, 7. Linebacker Bob Paszek's interception return for a touchdown and Tom Metz's nine-yard run for a touchdown finished the romp.

GW vs. VMI. A potent attack and stingy defensive play highlighted the Colonial's third straight win. Backs Tom Metz, Jody Glass, and Mike Holloran paced the strong Buff rushing attack, amassing 175 yards.

VMI's keying on quarterback Lyle enabled Holloran and Metz to rush for touchdowns of 18 and nine yards respectively.

The GW defense sparkled in its first shutout, twice thwarting Keydet bids deep in Colonial territory.

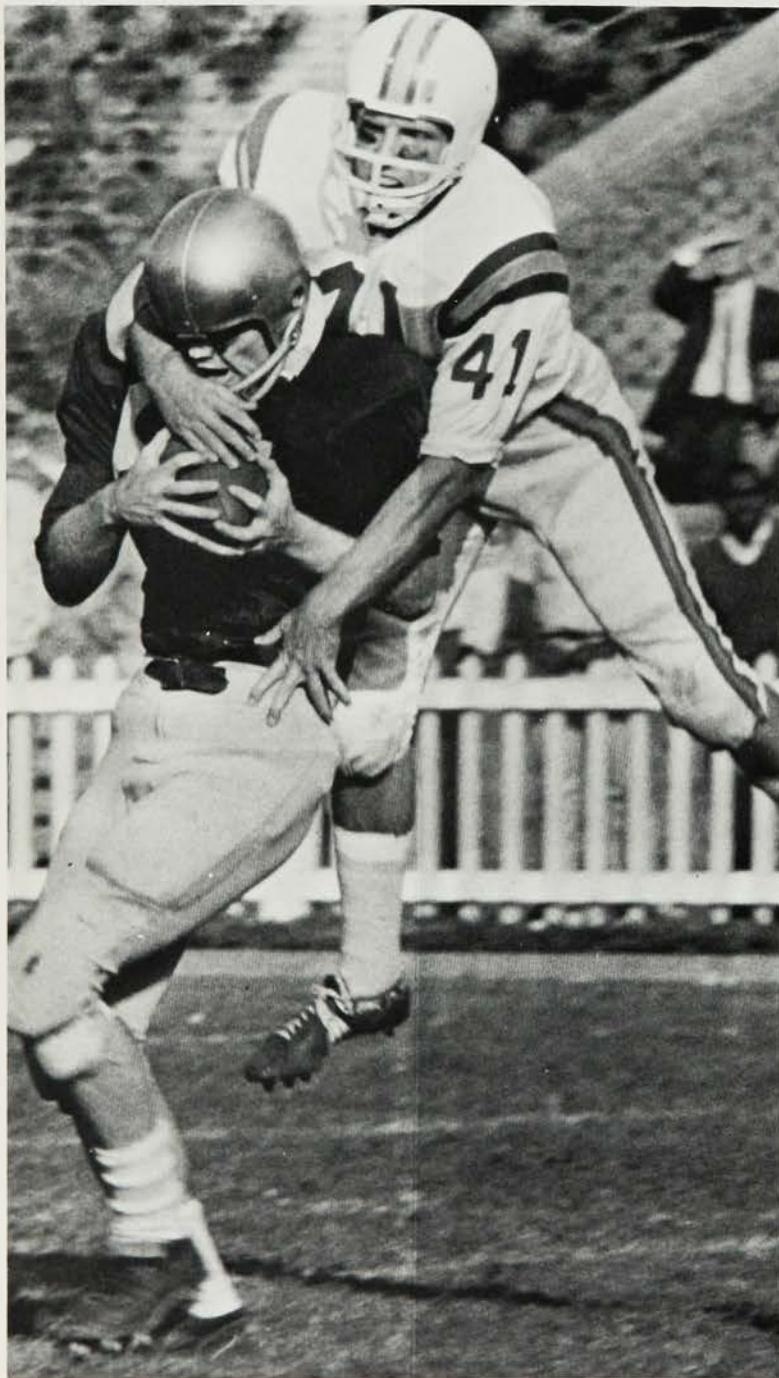

VPI's Bob Owens is hit by Cliff Reid as, Tom Reilly and Norm Neverson trail. Reilly was to stumble and receive a broken ankle.

Bob Shue cracks for a few tough yards on a trap play as Joe Kun attempts interference.

INJURIES COSTLY TO GRIDMEN

Tom Metz collars a William and Mary receiver.

GW vs. VPI. Behind the stellar passing of quarterback Bob Owens, the Gobbler's of VPI dealt GW its first defeat. Owens made the first VPI score on a roll-out to give the Gobblers a lead they never relinquished. A 20-yard field goal and a 75-yard touchdown run closed out the scoring for the Gobblers. The Buff scored its two touchdowns on a pass to Bruce Keith and a two-yard run by Mike Holloran.

Co-Captains Doug McNeil and Fred D'Orazio pose with Coach Camp.

GW vs. Cincinnati. The Bearcats of Cincinnati allowed the Buff only a field goal by Garry Lyle in defeating GW 13-3. Capitalizing on two GW fumbles, the Bearcats scored both times. Meanwhile, Holloran was rushing for 175 yards and Lyle was completing 10 of 21 passes; but the Cincy defense got tough in their own territory and thwarted most GW drives.

GW vs. William and Mary. W&M dealt the Colonials their third straight loss, 28-14. Safetyman Fred D'Orazio and Tackle John Zier intercepted passes to set up the Buff's only two touchdowns. Injuries to Tom Reilly, Don Lauer, and Garry Lyle proved crippling to GW in this game, and Homecoming loomed as possible disaster.

Dejection is epitomized in Garry Lyle.

Mike Holloran sweeps end for touchdown.

Backfieldmen pose before opener with Temple. Posing are Lyle, Holloran, Don Lauer, and Jody Glass.

COLONIALS FOURTH

GW vs. Davidson. The Colonial got back on the winning track, crushing Davidson 23-7. Sophomore Glenn Davis, making his second starting appearance before a huge Homecoming crowd, led the Buff to early scores. Tom Metz's spectacular punt return for a touchdown, and a 23-yard field goal by Lyle completed the romp.

GW vs. Furman. Rolling over Furman Paladins 24-7, the Buff kept its hopes up for a division crown. Fred Yakin led a spirited defense which completely stifled the Paladins.

Quarterback Steve Welpott threw an 18-yard touchdown pass to end Larry Cignetti. A 12-yard field goal by Lyle, Mike Holloran's tenth touchdown run, and a quarterback sneak by Welpott closed out the potent Colonial offense.

Al Kwiecinski leads Lyle for short gain against VPI.

WITH 4-3 LOG

GW lost its final two games to East Carolina and West Virginia. In the East Carolina game GW led by twenty points at the half, only to see the Pirates storm back to nip the Buff 21-20. Even in loss to West Virginia, the Colonials had some highlights as Tom Metz scored three touchdowns and Jody Glass rushed for over 100 yards.

Football Footnotes. The Colonials, picked by many to capture the Southern Conference, finished fourth. Post season honors went to Doug McNeil and Mike Holloran, both named as honorable All-American and All-Conference choices. Tom Metz and Steve Lapko were All-League choices. Fred D'Orazio was Second Team, All-Conference, and Garry Lyle won honorable mention. Finally the interior line of Jim Jensen, Joe Kun, Ray Spolar, Norm Neverson, and Tom Reilly must be given credit for their unsung efforts throughout the year.

Garry Lyle boots a three yard field goal.

Defensive back Bob Schmidt stops a wildcat.

INEXPERIENCE PLAGUES CAGERS

With only one senior returning from last year's squad, the varsity basketball team struggled to only two victories.

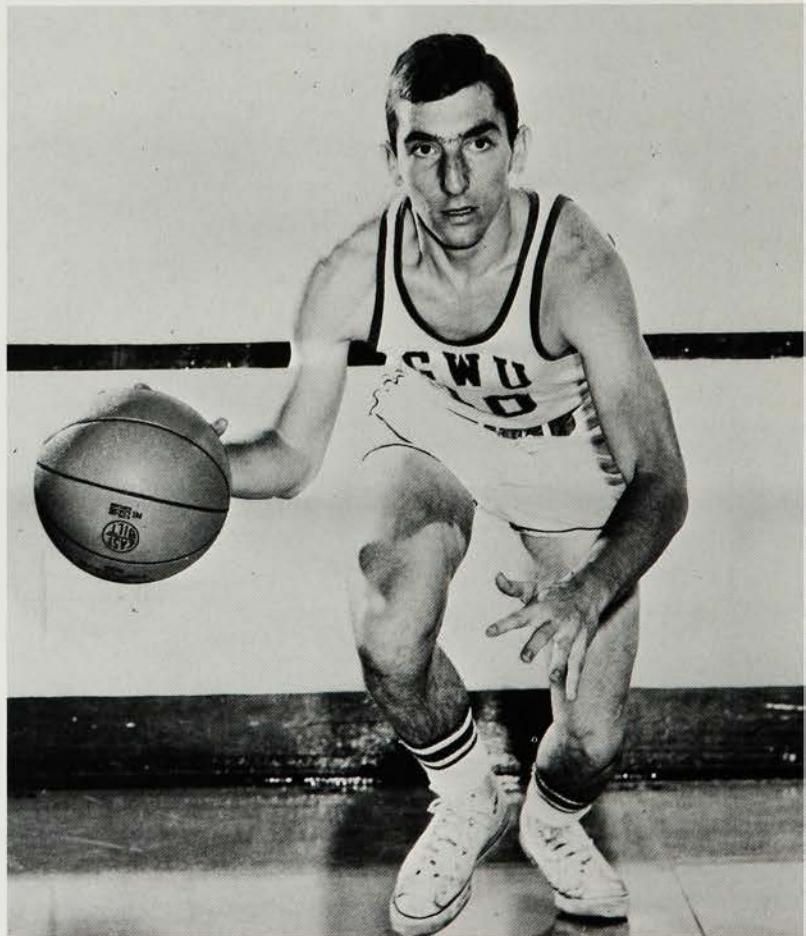

The Colonial five lost their first four games. GW gave indications of things to come in this early going as they could not generate a consistent offense. Sloppy ballhandling and loose defensive ball also characterized the Colonials.

But the Buff fought back and won successive victories over Furman and Citadel. Paced by the sharp-shooting of Terry Grefe and the clever ballhandling of guard Joe Lalli, GW gave promise of breaking out of its slump.

However, the Colonials faced a rocky road to their third victory as they lost twelve straight games. Included was a last place showing in the area big three championship to Georgetown and Maryland. In this span of losses, the starting five could not jell, as is essential to a winning effort. This lack of team unity showed itself as the Buff played the league's worst defensive ball, and had the worst field goal percentage.

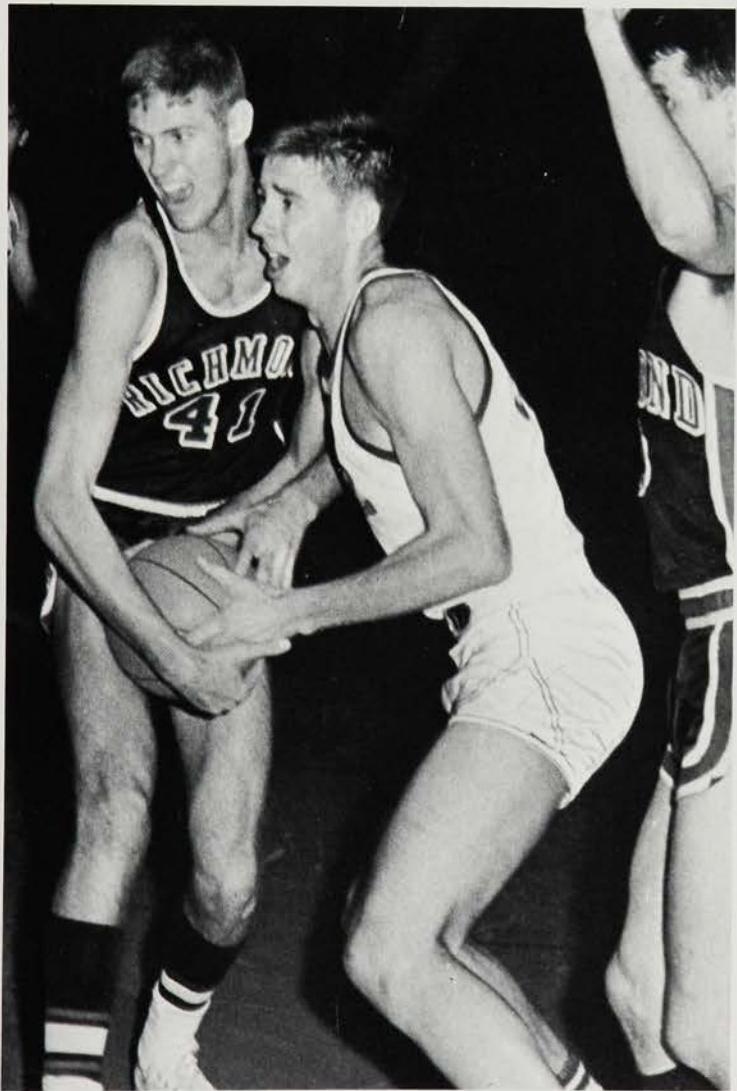

Bob Nugent takes a hook shot in victory over Furman.

Joe Lalli spearheaded the Cagers' offensive punch.

First Row: Bob Elliot; Jeff De Long; Joe Mullian; Joe Lalli; Terry Grefe. Second Row: Mike Judy; Mickey Sullivan; Fred Devely; Bob Nugent; Dick Ballard; Ed Rainey.

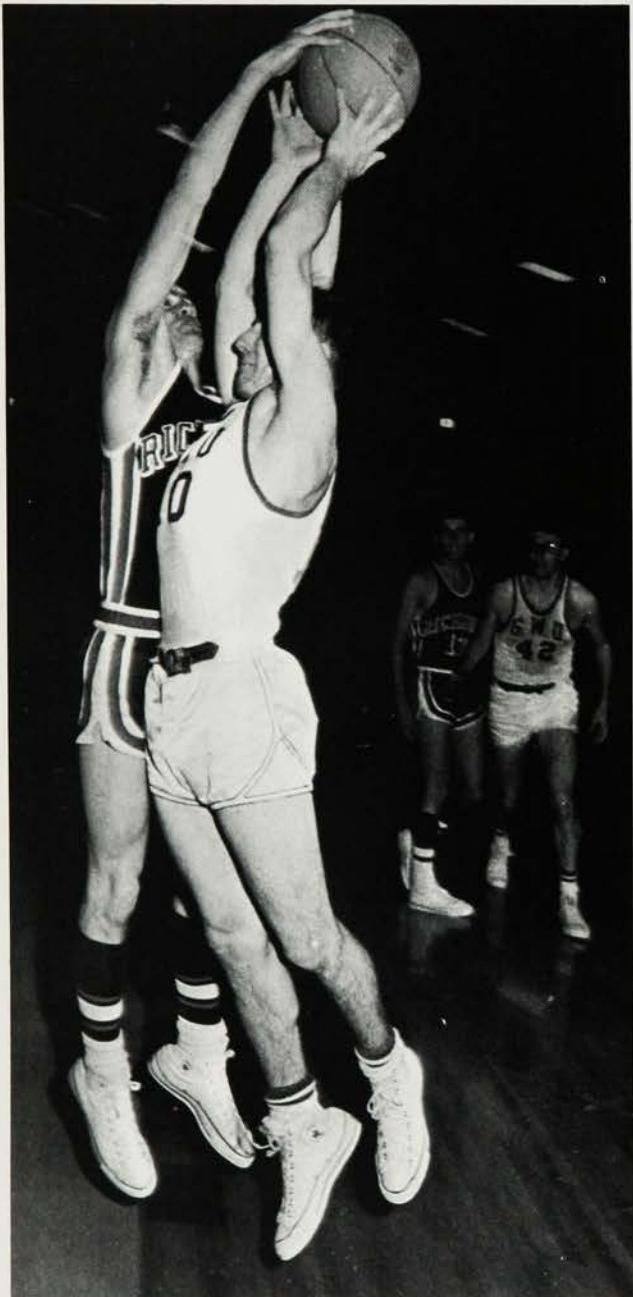

Ed Rainey scraps with a Spider guard for control of tap-off.

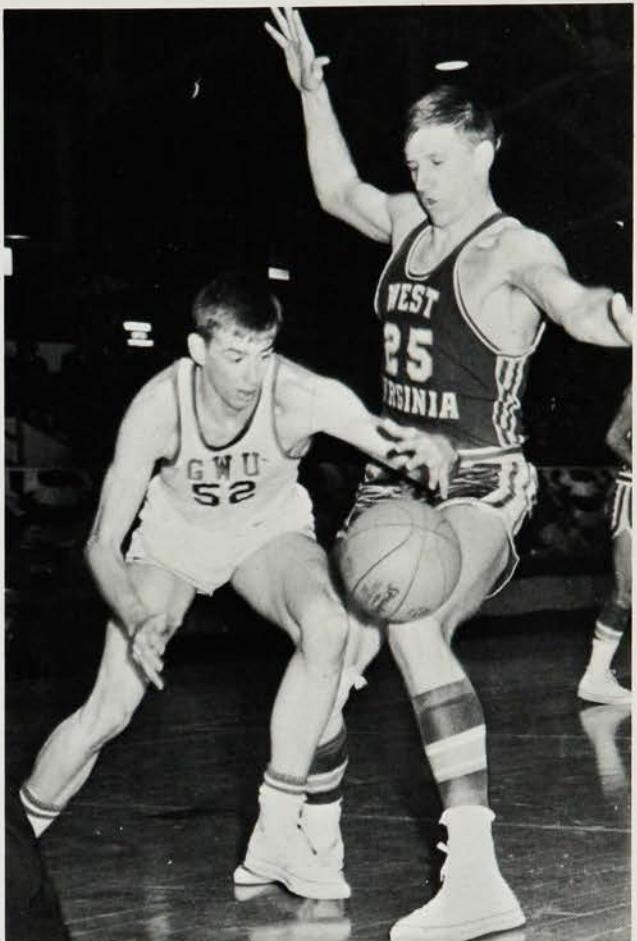

GW's All-American hopes will lie in star frosh, Ray Holup. Holup plays in the tradition of his two brothers, former greats at GW.

VARSITY LOOKS TO STRONG FROSH

Joe Lalli fights for possession of rebound.

Ed Rainey commits offensive charging foul.

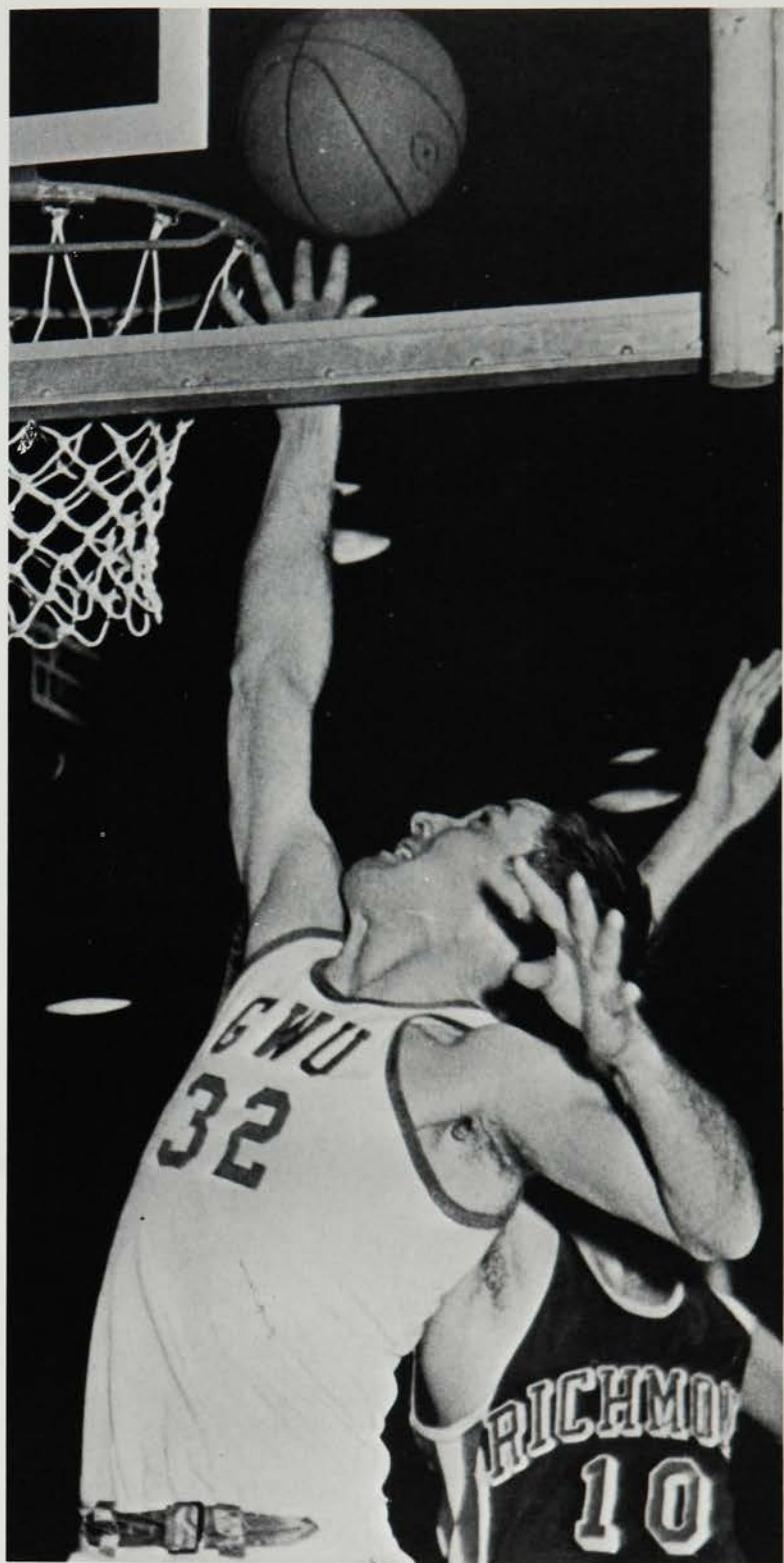

Ballard picks for Grefe.

Although GW experienced many troubles this year, praise must go to head coach William Reinhart for molding a reputable five, composed of no seniors. Reinhart, an accomplished coach in his own right, has in his 23 years stay at G. W., compiled 312 wins and 219 losses. He also doubles as head baseball coach.

Any coach must take pride in his former pupils, especially if they have gone on to prominence. Reinhart should be no different. Some of his former pupils include "Red" Auerbach, Joe Gordon, Bob Faris, and Joe Holup, brother of freshman star Ray.

Reinhart looks to next year's varsity to rebound from this year's poor showing. A strong freshman five and returning members of the present team should provide GW fans with a winning season next year.

With finger tip control, Grefe taps the ball in for two points.

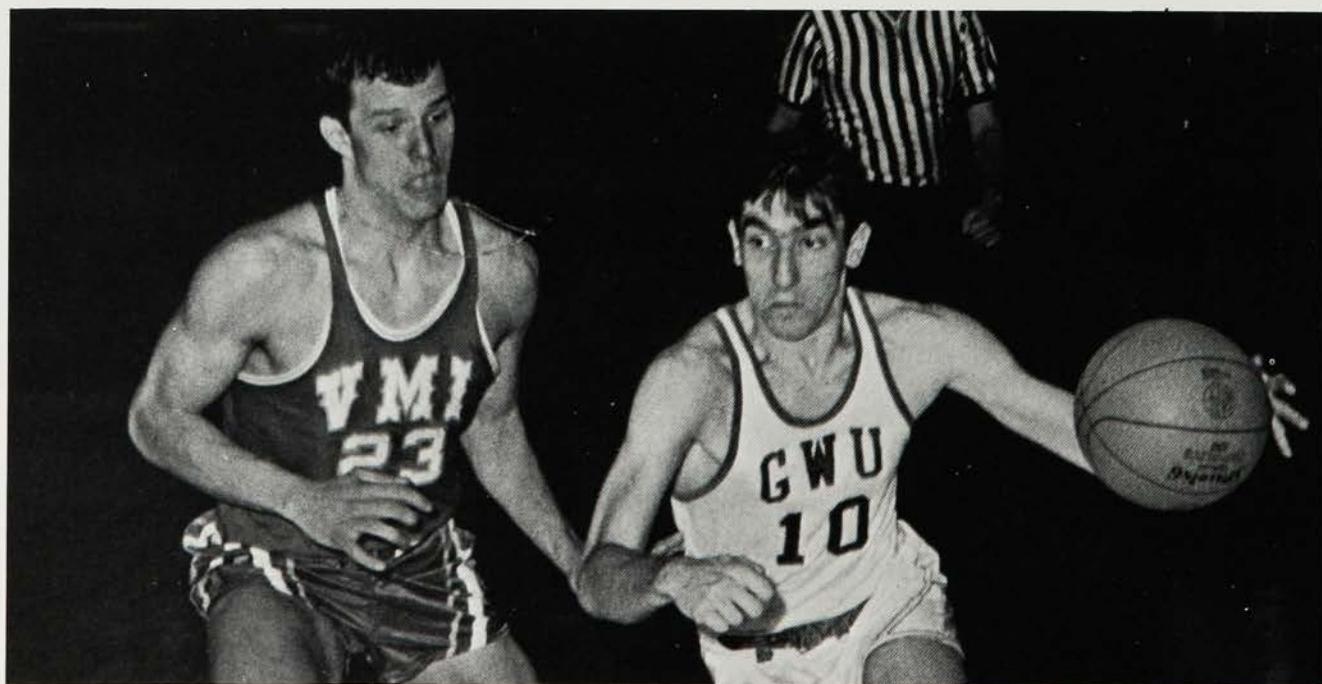

Grimacing Terry Grefe takes a desperation shot.

Surprisingly, this year's cagers averaged 77 points a game. The average total was compiled via a mediocre 40 per cent field goal average. The discrepancy lies in the excellent 74 per cent free throw average. Lalli led the team with a 17 point average, followed by Grefe's 12 points, and Ed Rainey, Bob Nugent, and Dick Ballard who all averaged about 10 points a game. Jeff DeLong had both the best field goal and free throw percentage at 45 and 87 per cent respectively. Senior Joe Mullan, defensive ace, also had the second best free throw average at 76 per cent. Mickey Sullivan, last year's freshman ace, could not quite hit for the good field goal mark, but chipped in with a 76 per cent free throw average.

FUTURE GOOD AS STARTERS RETURN

Speedy Joe Lalli drives for a bucket against the Keydets.

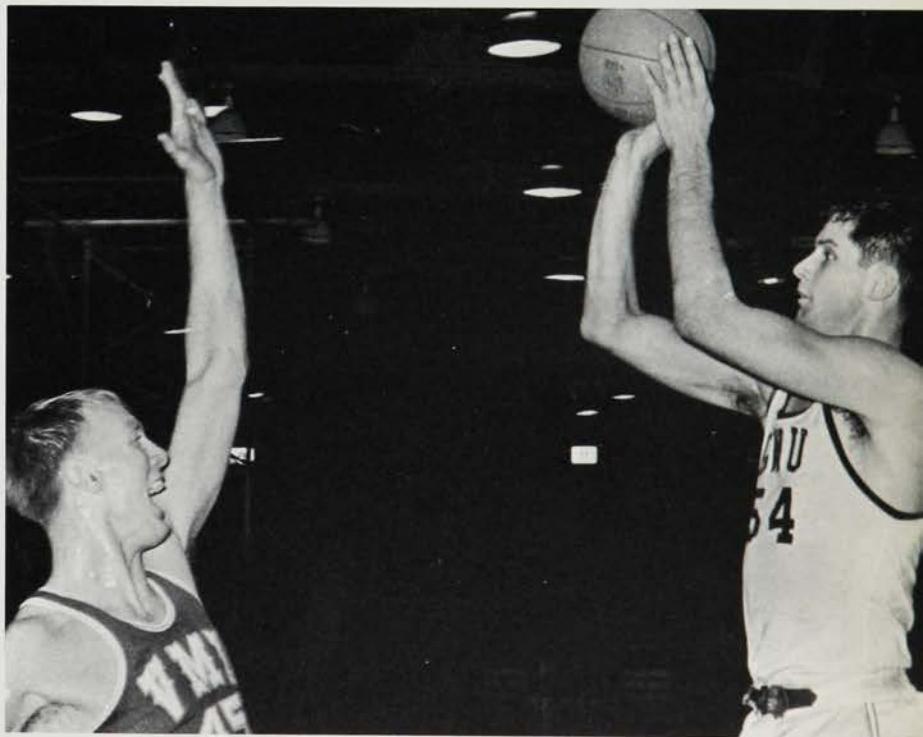

Leaping Ed Rainey shoots over a West Virginia defender.

Nugent nets two points on a fast break.

BOOTERS PLACE

Sam Swaby shows dribbling technique.

The George Washington University soccer squad made giant steps in breaking out of its infancy, facing the severe tests of college competition.

Under the tutelage of Tom White, the pitchman lost their first two games to strong Loyola and American University contingents. But a big victory over William and Mary set the way for the Southern Conference Tournament.

The tournament began well for the kickers as they defeated Furman and William & Mary. But losses to Davidson and eventual winner West Virginia cost the Buff the tournament. In all, the booters finished third in the conference allowing the fewest number of goals per game. Credit must go to the defense of Dave Satter, Tom Lipscomb, and All-League pick John Leaning. Bob Armell, Dave Docherty, Faisel al-Sowayel, and goalie Simon Cargill played outstanding ball for the Buff all year long as soccer looked like it was beginning to take roots at GW.

DELTs, DISASTERS

Merle Solomon grabs first down pass.

Delta Tau Delta once again dominated A-league football by going undefeated in six league games. The Deltas knocked off contending SAE, 6-0, in a game that saw the Deltas sew up the title. Star quarterback Jim Unger teamed up with end Al Ashley for long gains throughout the season. Ashley doubled as punter, booming long punts to keep the opposition deep in their own territory.

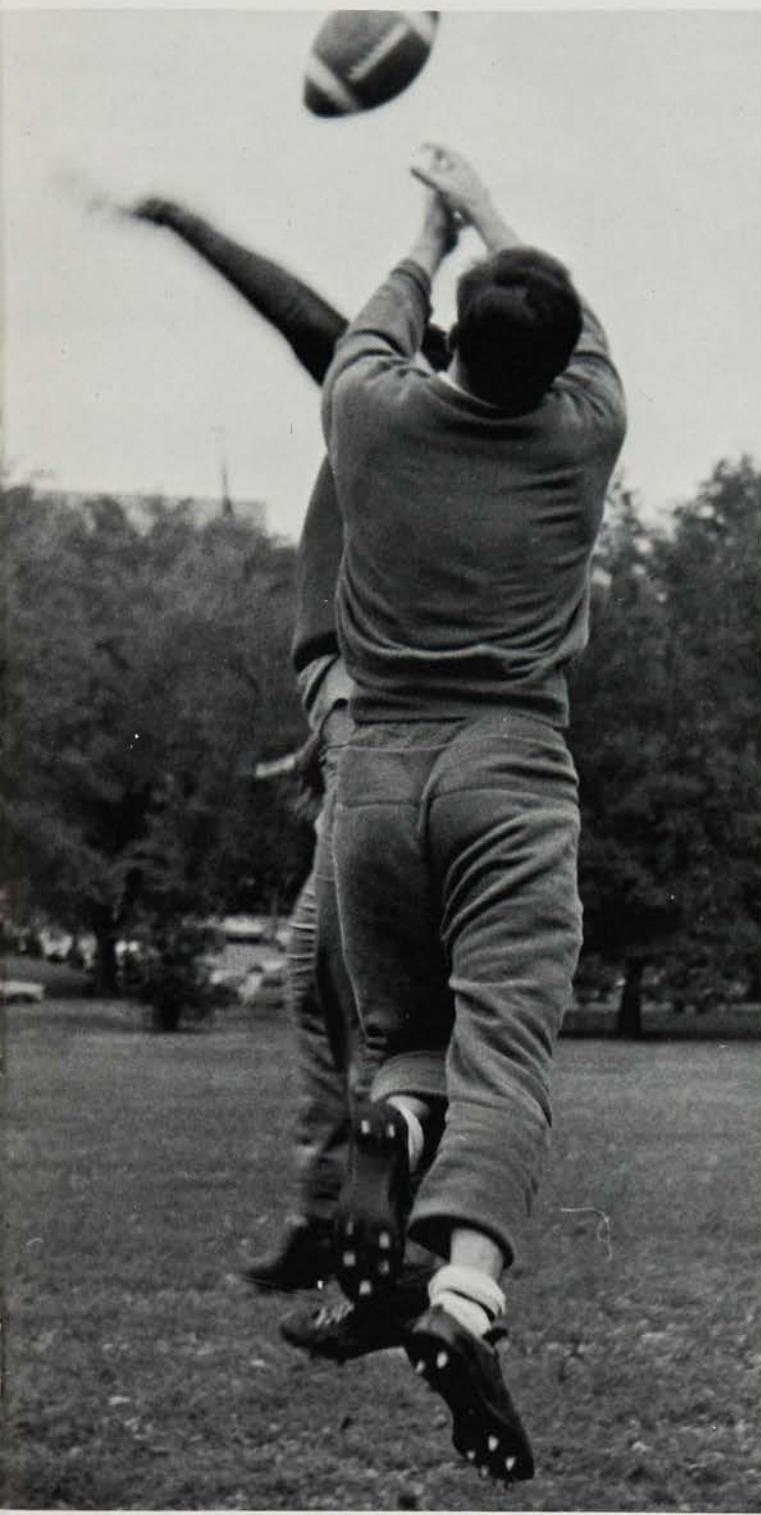

In the Sunday B-league X-Pikes banged out a 9-6 victory over ROTC to win the championship. ROTC outplayed the Pikes but could not capitalize once they were in enemy territory.

In the Saturday B-league the Disasters won league honors with an unblemished record.

Delts Rick Kaplan and Mike Locke pressure Adams' quarterback.

DOMINATE FOOTBALL INTRAMURALS

Star end Al Ashley leaps for pass.

Adam Winter and Richard Sachs are about to work a double reverse.

BATSMEN FINISH WITH 9-7 LOG

A grimacing Tim Hill strains to reach first base.

Led by the hitting of Tim Hill and Mike Holloran, and the pitching and hitting of Jerry Ricucci, the Colonials compiled a 4-6 conference record and a 9-7 overall log. Hill hit .339 and led the team in doubles. All-Conference centerfielder Mike Holloran hit .359, and Ricucci hit .457 while compiling below a two-point earned run average.

The George Washington infield was one of the smallest in the country with Tim Hill at third base, Joe Lalli at shortstop, Joe Mullan at second base, and towering Joe Pignatiello at first base.

Catcher Jim Snyder played consistently good ball and won second team All-Conference honors.

OARSMEN FOURTH IN NATION

GW boatmen begin to pull away from St. John's of New York en route to upset victory.

Crewmen Alexander and Blanski strain in early morning practice.

Last year's crew team was certainly the finest in its young history at GW, finishing fourth in the nation's small college ranks. Winning the Metropolitan Area Championship for the first time by defeating Georgetown, the oarsmen were seeded number one for the Dad Vail Championships in Philadelphia. They were upset, however, and finished only fourth of 22 teams.

The crew team, under the tutelage of coach Harvey Montgomery, sustained only two losses—Navy and Cornell. Rounding out the season, the Colonials beat a strong Drexel and American University contingent, and out-rowed traditionally strong St. John's.

Jeff Tone poke checks at Georgetown wing during playoffs. The puckmen finished fourth in regular season play. The same squad rebounded to become area champs.

HOCKEY TEAM — METRO CHAMPS

The GW hockey team defeated the Canucks to win the area championship. For player-coach Steve MacIntyre's six, victory was sweet. The team's prospects look good for next year's defense of the crown.

DIVERSITY KEY TO SPRING INTRAMURALS

Overtime action sees forwards desperately reaching for the ball.

From ping-pong to softball, 1965's spring intramural season was a highly successful one both in the amount of participation and in the quality of play.

SAE nipped the Deltas to capture the wrestling crown; and AEPi, featuring champion Eddie Berkin, captured the ping-pong championship to round out competition.

In the spring Phi Sigma Delta and the Deltas won the softball crowns in B and A league ball respectively.

WELCOME TO FRESHMEN WOMEN

It's a real bargain at only $2.98.

The sun shines brightly and the chatter of several hundred girls fills the air with a slight hum. The afternoon sun high in the sky, attests to the heavy heat of the day. Other than this, there is very little activity on the still slumbering campus. Fall has not officially come to GW . . . this strange bit of activity which seems so unseasonal is the annual sorority rush of George Washington.

This year "Rush" was scheduled a week before the opening of school in order to alleviate the confusion which often results from the myriad activities of Orientation Week.

Girls are still girls, however, and rush is rush . . . which meant that all went according to schedule, just as it had since the time honored tradition began. After a rather grueling marathon of thirteen "Open House" parties, rushing began in earnest. Skits and costumes were prepared with as much care as a Broadway production, and the menus equalled those of gourmet restaurants. With smiles, laughter, and sweet sophistication, the sorority girls beguiled the eager rushees. The week came to an end, bringing with it a bevy of new pledges, and an end to the suspense.

Gee, we're glad you could make it!

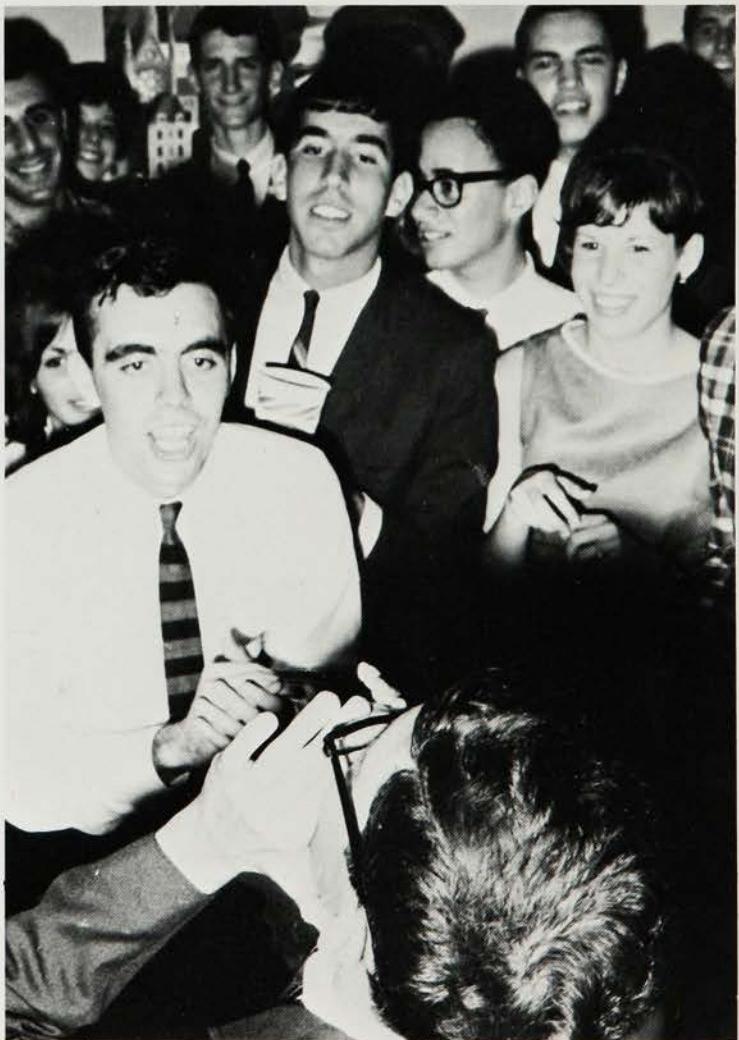

Come on, sweetheart ...

FRATERNITY MEN WORK ALL YEAR

For many students, the fraternity system of George Washington is a way of life . . . and what a way to live! In each season of the academic year the industrious members of GW's twelve fraternities can be found busily engaged in some project—social or otherwise. The fall heralds the advent of Rush—that frenzied two weeks in which unsuspecting freshman are "wined & dined" into brotherhood. Fall is also a time of football games and serenades of the girls' dorm. There is a never-ending succession of fraternity parties that acquaints new members with the social graces and provides a good time for all. Then the semester is officially brought to an end by "Hell week" and initiation. Spring brings fraternity blocks in Student Council elections, Sing, and the sophisticated ball known as IFC weekend.

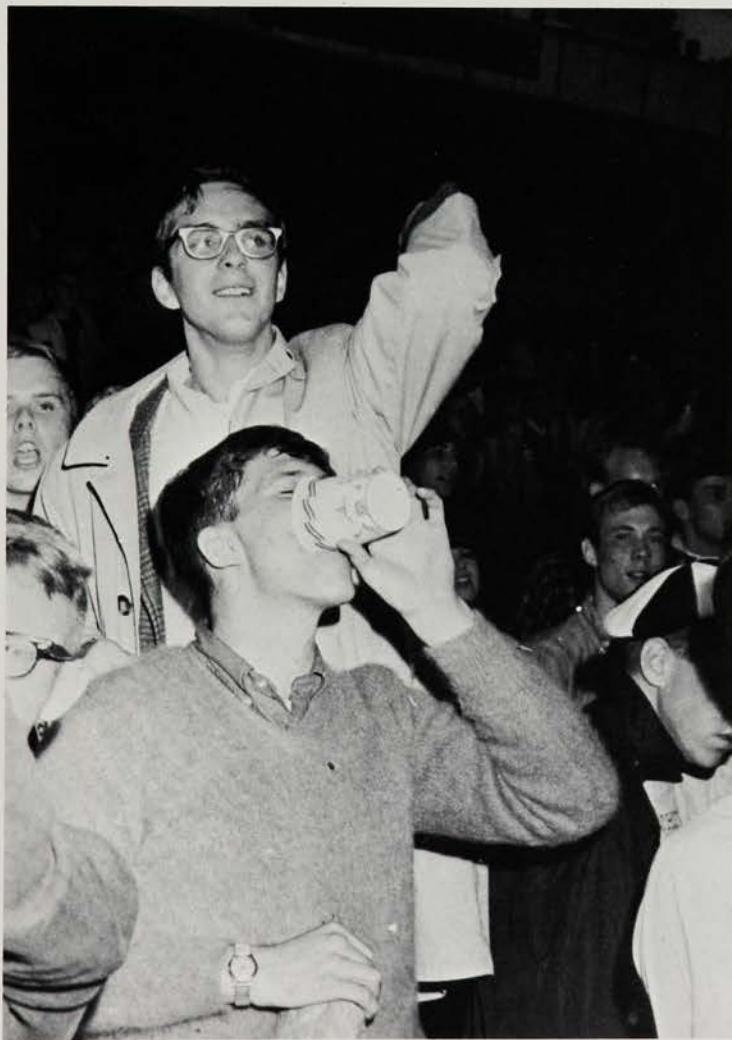

Fraternities do have a serious side however, and can be proud of their contributions in areas such as the Blood Drive for the men in Viet Nam, the adoption of orphans overseas, and an active participation in school activities.

Hey, brother, your date's gone home.

You can open your eyes now.

The pause that satisfies ...

... will the meeting come to order.

WEEKS OF HOMECOMING FUN

When the nip of fall is in the air, and the leaves have fallen from the trees, a single theme comes to occupy the minds of GW's students. It isn't the approach of mid-terms, or Slater's food or even Saturday night's fraternity party. Of course not! It is Homecoming . . . that gala event without which fall would not be fall.

For us Homecoming began with Fall Concert. Everyone enjoyed the melodic voices of both Joe & Eddy and Odetta. Then, during the intermission, Sheila Miller, Homecoming Queen for 1965, was presented. Later on that week, activity rose to a feverish pitch as fraternity, sorority, and independent groups prepared their floats and practiced for the Homecoming Sing.

Next, the Homecoming Musical, "The King and I" (presented in conjunction with the American Light Opera Company) with its beautiful songs and colorful costumes, seemed to announce that Homecoming was really in full swing.

All that night, a great many GW students could be seen, crepe paper in shaky hands, putting the finishing touches on their pride and joys . . . and the following morning, those floats looked terrific to us all . . . especially to those of us that were among the sleepless! After a jubilant float parade which led to D.C. Stadium, the enthusiastic crowds cheered the team to victory over Davidson in an exciting game. The Homecoming Dance, that evening, was held in the Armory and was a continuation of the celebration that had been given impetus in cocktail parties held earlier in the evening. The band, Lionel Hampton and El Corols, further enlivened proceedings, and all in all, the dance was a fitting climax to an absorbing and exciting week . . . Homecoming!

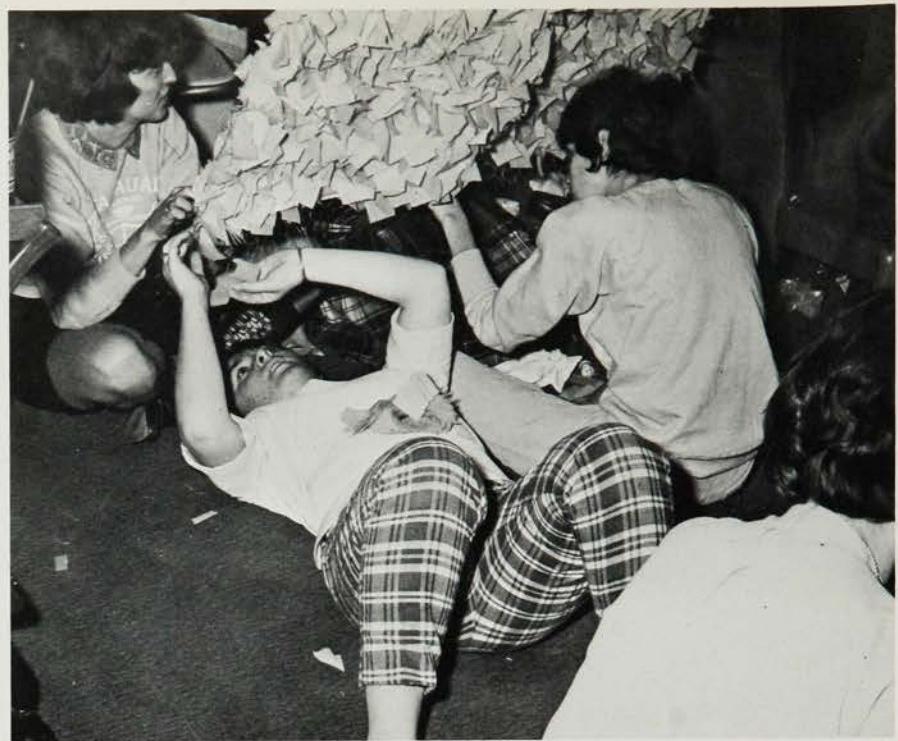

Joe and Eddy appear on stage at Lisner.

Dr. Elliott escorts the new Homecoming Queen, Sheila Miller, back to her seat.

Good grief, we covered the fire escape.

It looks okay from down here.

PARADING FLOATS

"HELP!" HERE COMES GOAT SHOW

Lights dim and the show is on!! In the first rows of the darkened theater sit thirteen clusters of excited girls, each awaiting a turn on stage. Shouts of approval and laughter greet each group as they appear, and at times, the activity on stage releases an uproar from the audience. After each has performed, the judges confer—the result is a trophy for the top three groups.

What is this strange happening that rivals all the theaters of Washington? Why its GW's annual Goat Show, of course! For the price of a quarter and a can of food you are treated to the satirical skits of the pledge classes of the sororities on campus. This year the theme of Goat Show was "HELP!" and each skit had to include a catch line. Kappa Alpha Theta carried off the trophy for Originality, Zeta Tau Alpha won for Audience Appeal, and Phi Sigma Sigma captured a trophy for Ensemble.

Need we say more?

"Five Minutes to Freshman closing."

Why don't you use your head for something besides a knife rack?

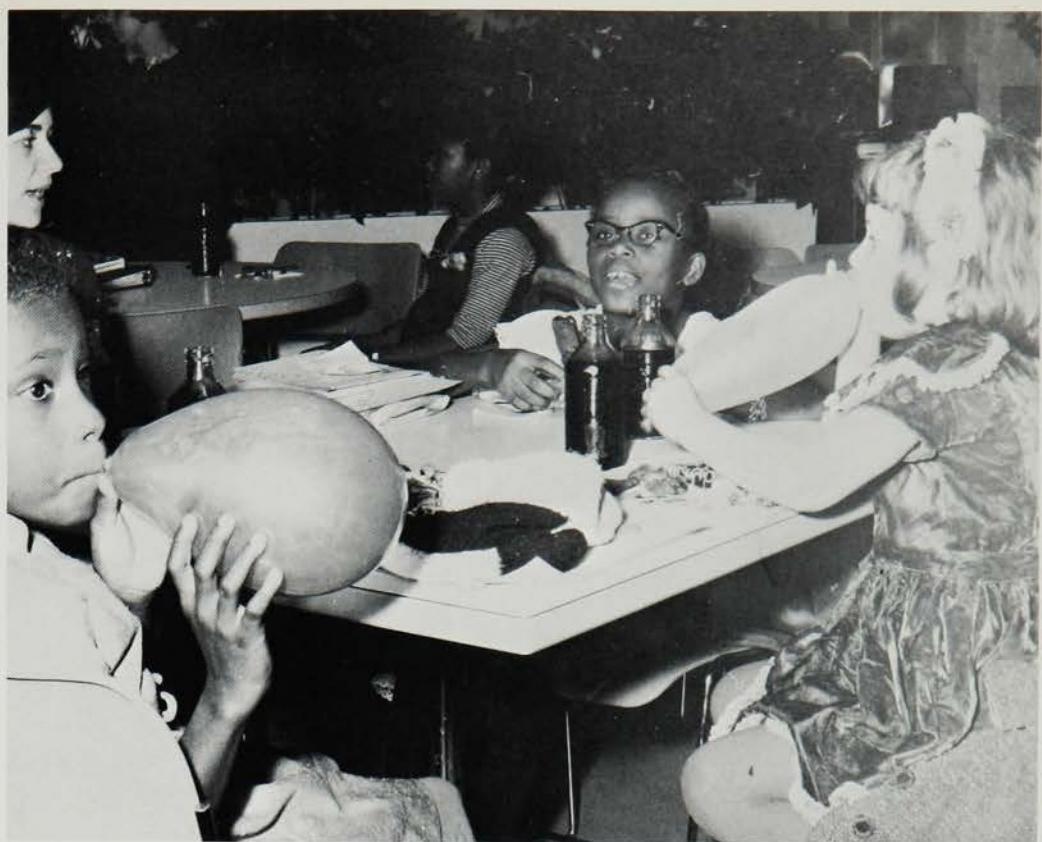

The lovely Theta's gracefully accept their award.

DERBIES TOP THE PLAYERS

Practically as predictable as the coming of spring itself, is the annual Sigma Chi sponsored event called Derby Day.

With its advent, the sorority women of GW's campus drop their books, and exchange their feminine attire for cutoffs and sweatshirts to participate in a day of fun in the sun—or rain, as the case may be.

This year Derby Day was more hectic than ever, for the Sigma Chi's and the sorority had the rain to contend with . . . and the mud which followed as a natural result. Spirits were not dampened, however, and the Sigma Chi's sporting their traditional bow ties and derbies, led the girls through a wide variety of activities which included everything from rickshaw races to lemon bobbing in a pool covered with whipped cream. Even though the last events were cancelled due to the weather, winners were determined and the day came to a soggy end, leaving Delta Gamma in first place, Kappa Kappa Gamma in second, and Kappa Alpha Theta in third.

TALENT FOLLIES MAY DAY

May Day Follies at George Washington this year served as an honors night and talent show for the whole University. The evening began with the announcement of the May Queen for 1965, Miss Kate Buddy. Her court included Lois Barder and Nancy Broyhill. Many awards were presented for all types of service and outstanding contribution to the University. Among these were awards presented to Dr. Robert H. Harmon, Peter P. Hill, and Vice-President John A. Brown as outstanding faculty members. Colonial Booster awards went to Kappa Delta and Phi Sigma Kappa. The University Players Thespian Award went to Ron Scheraga and Stan Baritz. Lois Barder and Hugh Heclo were named Outstanding Senior Woman and Man, respectively.

Also highlighting the evening was talent from both individual and group performers. Bob and Evelyn Blanar won first place in the individual competition, and Delta Gamma won first place in the group division.

But, Grandma, what big teeth you have.

noted for her beauty, talent and brains.

Dr. Harmon listens attentively as he is serenaded by the G W Troubadours.

The coming of May brings a strange phenomenon to GW's sunlit, concrete campus. The sober, upright citizens of academia unwind a little and take time from their intensive, intellectual pursuits to join the congenial throng in a festive cruise down the Potomac.

Colonial Cruise, as it is called, harbors such pleasant memories for us all! We remember with joy that crowded sundeck, the scorching sun and whipping wind . . . the warm friendships inspired on blankets brought for the occasion, the mosquitos, the empty chicken buckets, soggy sandwiches, and warm beer. Yes, Colonial Cruise, that day of warm-hearted frivolity, holds a special place in the hearts of all GW students. The wholesome fun generated from such an event will linger long after the day is ended.
